The secretary is mailing out this week several hundred premium lists of the fair which will be held during October. If you have not received one when this issue of the Falcon reaches you drop a postal to the secretary and you will receive one by return mail. It is interesting to every citizen interested in better things for Fayette County.

The daily papers carried last Friday a Gleason, Tennessee, item stating that Rev. W. J. Carlton was not expected to survive cancer of the stomach with which he has been suffering for several years. He was once pastor of the Methodist church in this city and has friends and admirers here who will learn with serious regret of his dangerous illness.

The first open-cotton boll of the present crop in this county to reach The Falcon was brought in Tuesday morning by J. R. Pierce and came from the same field which furnished this office with the first bloom of the year. All reports on the prospect for a bumper cotton crop continue encouraging thruout this section, and corn was never better.

F. H. Jones, manager of the association of this place which held the races at the fair grounds last fall asks that it be announced that there will be matinee races at the fair grounds on next Friday August 18, and to extend a cordial invitation to horse owners in this and neighboring counties to bring their horses and enter them in these races. There will be no charge for admissions for horses or visitors, the whole affair being free to the public.

There was no meeting of the county fair directors last Saturday and it has been decided to have a meeting on Saturday, August 21, for the purpose of electing a president of the association to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of Mr. Kyle, and to transact such other business as may come up. The catalog is now ready for distribution and every director should be able to carry home some from this meeting and distribute them to his neighbors. Come on August 21 and meet with the directors.

The secretary of the county fair association is today sending a dozen copies of the premium list to each bank in the county with request that they be placed in the hands of interested parties. Call on your banker if you have not received a copy and if his supply has been exhausted before you get one ask him to notify the secretary and more will be sent. We want one in the hands of every person in Fayette county who is interested in having one. Then after getting the catalog get busy to have your exhibit ready when October comes.

Last Tuesday, August 8, was the date on which the democratic executive committee of this county for the next two years was to meet and organize. Only eight committeemen have been chosen, as follows, first district W. S. Newby, second J. B. Foote, third J. A. Johnston, sixth W. O. Wilder, eighth Stitt Matthews, eleventh L. F. Chambers, fourteenth T. A. Crawford, and in the election held in the tenth district August 3 J. G. Knox was elected in that district. These eight committeemen will have to elect committeemen to fill the vacancies in the other districts and would have done this last Tuesday had a meeting been held. The steady rain on Tuesday made it impossible for a meeting and it is presumed that the chairman will call another meeting at an early date.

Entered into rest at Taylor's Chapel near Somerville, on July 29, 6 o'clock p. m., Mrs. Susan Ann Taylor, the oldest resident of Fayette county. She was born of James and Martha Hayes in Mecklenburg county, Virginia, on August 1, 1819. She was married to Howell Taylor, a native of Virginia on October 10, 1843, and moved the same year to Fayette county. Of her five children only one survives her, Edmond Taylor of Stanton, Tennessee. She leaves many grand children, great grand children and other relatives. During late years she made her home with her son-in-law, J. V. Alexander. She was a devout member of the Methodist church and the funeral exercises were held in Taylor's Chapel where she had long worshiped. Rev. G. B. Baskerville conducted the funeral and paid a glowing tribute to her many beautiful and lasting virtues. Her pure Christian character still shines and lives among all those who were so fortunate as to know her. The burying was in the family burying ground at Taylor's Chapel at 3 o'clock

COTTON BELT CROP ROTATION

(By C. M. Allred, Division of Extension, University of Tennessee.)

In most parts of the cotton belt the practice of growing cotton almost continuously is changing. This system failed to keep up the fertility and the humus supply of the soil, and also failed to provide stock food.

The following is an especially good rotation for the cotton belt:

First year—Cotton.

Second year—Corn, with cowpeas between the rows.

Third year—Winter oats, followed by cowpeas.

With this rotation the same family can farm practically three times as large an area as when nothing but cotton is grown. All the cotton that can be picked can be raised, and by properly organizing the work, the other crops can be raised besides. This requires that two and three-horse teams be used.

HUSBAND SAVED HIS WIFE

Stopped Most Terrible Suffering by Getting Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Denison, Texas. — "After my little girl was born two years ago I began suffering with female trouble and could hardly do my work. I was very nervous but just kept dragging on until last summer when I got where I could not do my work. I would have a chill every day and hot flashes and dizzy spells and my head would almost burst. I got where I was almost a walking skeleton and life was a burden to me until one day my husband's sister told my husband if he did not do something for me I would not last long and told him to get your medicine. So he got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after taking the first three doses I began to improve. I continued its use, and I have never had any female trouble since. I feel that I owe my life to you and your remedies. They did for me what doctors could not do and I will always praise it wherever I go."—Mrs. G. O. LOWERY, 419 W. Monterey Street, Denison, Texas.

If you are suffering from any form of female ills, get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and commence the treatment without delay.
